What Makes Punks Tick?

The L.A. Press Club has closed its door to any new music shows, following what looked, on the surface, to be a very pleasant TWISTED ROOTS show. Though the bands all gave good performances, and the crowd seemed exceptionally cooperative (considering there were many so-called radical punks there), the Press Club complained of a broken drapes, smashed broken beer bottles. The show's promoter says most of the damage was done by these kids from WASTED YOUTH.

ONE OF THE TEN GREAT WONDERS OF BEAVER CREEK OREGON!!!

When it came time for me to pick the destination for my summer vacation I decided to go with the Beaver. Yes, I chose scenic Beaver Creek, Oregon, land of farming and T.V. watching.

Unfortunately, the Oregon teens aren't as "HIP" as L.A.'s modern young adults. The big fads are animal breeding, flare jeans, and teenage pregnancies.

The climate is usually cold and rainy but when I arrived it was in the hundreds. I could often be found swimming in the local rivers. Although there are no poisonous snakes west of the Cascades I had to keep a watch out for drowning Oregonians who just couldn't handle the heat.

And the sun goes down in the Beaver Creek town for a night of Disco roller skating and Sheep rearing. Oregon is a must on the schedule for any L.A. jet setter.

L.A.'s WASTED YOUTH

WGP talked with Scranny Danny (singer) and Jeff Long (bass) outside of Cuckoo's Nest and at Jeff's house.

Jeff: I've been with Wasted Youth for three months now. Next big show is with Dead Kennedys Sept. 11 in San Francisco. I'm anxious to see the SF scene.

WGP: What about your album?

JEFF: It was recorded at Mystic Studios. It has 10 songs, the test pressing is good. Should be out in two weeks.

WGP: What's it like to sing for WY?

Scranny: It's great! (Haha) All the guys, they say, they just love it! (Laughter). Oh, no, it's really great. I love it.

WGP: What about all the violence?

Scranny: Oh, I love it. I THRIVE OFF IT. No. (Getting serious) These Huntington people don't like us (referring to the crowd at Aug. 26 gig with Black Flag and Crickle One at Cuckoo's). I don't know what it is?

WGP: What are your influences?

Jeff: WY's influences are Crass, Discharge. Personally I like PIL, Discharge, & The Bags.

WGP: What are your favorite WY songs?

Jeff: UniHiBeefrag, Problem Child, Born deprived.

WGP: What are some of the problems you see with "the scene"?

Jeff: I hate punks who bother and hassle new punks. It's stupid. (Proudly points out, and smiles.) The LA Weekly says Wasted Youth & Wasted Youth Gang closed down 3 clubs! But, in reality, the only club we closed was LA Press Club.

JEFF - BASSIST - WASTED YOUTH

WGP: What's the Wasted Youth gang?

Jeff: Kids. I don't know. I haven't met them.

Scranny: (Still upset about the crowd at the nest). People are too cool to dance! What did they cut their hair for, anyways?

Jeff: I want punk to get intense, more violent- WY gang may do that. I'd like to see punks getting together and beating up people who hassle us.

WGP: Will you shave your head again?

Jeff: I'll shave it for big gigs, like the one with the Dead Kennedys.

LA:

Okidog puts up "NO LOITERING" sign on an attempt to end, or curb locals from "hanging out". Jim says, "buy a coke & you can stay, the cops wont hassle you if your a customer." . . . The Whisky bans punk from it's confiendments... locals up in arms! Every Tuesday there is a PUNK HANGOUT NITE from 9-to-12 . . . Rodney's show is cut again. . . . Charels of Bards fame claims Crass and Exploited are soon to play there. Don't you belcive it! . . . Richard, also of Bards fame says he is soon to open a new club. . . . Scranny Danny keeps on saying "Wasted Youth Lp out in two weeks" all summer long! Their debut Lp should be out when your reading this. Maybe. More news as it developes. School started and kids didn't show for the big Minutemen/Red Cross show at the Nest. There were only 60 there, mostly members of Black Flag and the SST label staff. Below are some good pix of the Minutemen that nite. (pix by Alan)

CIRCLE ONE

WGP: Who's in Circle One?

John: Me (singer), Mike V. (guitar), Bill (drums), & Mike (bass).

WGP: What does Circle One mean?

John: We didn't name ourselves after the Circle Jerks, or the Germs song. Circle means a group of people gathered together that share a common interest. One means united.

WGP: What are your favorite bands?

John: Black Flag, TSOL, Exploited.

Mike V.: Crass, Wasted Youth, Sin 34.

Mike: PIL, Black Flag.

WGP: What do you try to convey to people through your music?

John: We try to open their eyes to all the shit that's going on. We're the last generation if you go by what the Bible says. The war is coming sooner than you think. Especially that shit in the Middle East.

WGP: How did you guys get started?

John: It was Bill's and Mike V.'s idea to start a band. Then they got Bill's brother, Mike, to get a bass and then they got me.

WGP: What do you think of the cops?

John: I have a theory that there are cops and pigs. Cops do their jobs and pigs think they're God. Police like to hassle people that don't conform. Once you cut your hair you get a lot of shit from everyone...Pigs, society, hippys, parents, girlfriends. People believe what they see in the newspapers which is bullshit propaganda.

WGP: How long have you been into punk rock?

John: I've been listening to it for a year and a half but I've only been in the scene for thirteen months. He's been in it from the start.

Mike V.: I've been into it for three or four years.

WGP: Do you have any gigs coming soon?

John: We're playing with 45 Grave at the LUCKOO's Nest Saturday. We're only playing because we like 45 Grave a lot.

WGP: What do you like about skinheads?

John: Skinheads show that you're not part of society and that you don't care what people think. Someone said to me "Hey man, I heard you had a lot of followers and that you go around beating up people." That's a bunch of shit. Circle One doesn't have any followers, just friends.

BALD HEADS!

WGP: Why did you shave your hair?
Bob: Well because it's cool. It's fucking punk rock.

WGP: Your hair isn't bald, but it's a grown out skinhead, tell us, why did you cut your hair?

Lino: 'Cos I got a haircut.

WGP: Why do you have a bald head?
John: To show people I am not part of society.

WGP: Why do you have a skinhead?
Vince: 'Cos it's a normal boys haircut.

WGP: How about you, why do you have real short hair, a crew cut, aka a skinhead?
Oscar M.: It's cool in the summer. I live on the streets, so it's no hassle washing it, or anything like that.

WGP: Why do you have one?
Alex: God told me to shave my head.

WGP: Whattabout you? Why a skin?
Lance: The bottom line is that it's easy to take care of. Practical.

WGP: Why did you once have a skinhead?
Julie: The clean cut American look-and besides, I'm a dyke.

WGP: Tell us about your grown out skin-Phil: I got a skinhead to show off my ears.
Vince: Hey, man, don't be ashamed of your ears!! Look at mine! (GGGGOOOORR)

Pan: Some people think skinheads are punk. THEY ARE FAR FROM IT. In England the skinheads and the punks are rivals.

John: I hate the wannabe English people don't you?

RIC LEACH OF SYMBOL SIX

DETOURS, SYMBOL SIX, YOUTH BRIGADE, BLADES
Bards Appollo Aug 29

TSOL had canceled. So had Red Cross and the Descendents. But we didn't despair. They had booked the Blades and Youth Brigade instead. After the Blades and YB Symbol Six came on. They put on a marvelous show.

ALAN

45 GRAVE, SOCIAL DISTORTION, CHRISTIAN DEATH - Whiskey; Aug. 18:

Christian Death freaked alot of the punks out with their Siouxsie-meets-graveyard music. The lead singer was dressed like a girl at a funeral, it was pretty funny. Social Distortion came on and tore the roof off the fucker! The floor was moving and they went over real well. 45 Grave played GREAT, the kids who didn't dance were too busy falling in love with the singer.

-DAVE

CHINA WHITE, RED CROSS-
Whisky; August 16:

WOW! What can I say about Red Cross! They are the best band around right now. They really did a tight set and they always looked like they were having fun. Every song they did sounded perfect, and the audience liked them all, even the slow ones.

China White played too.

-ALAN

STEVE OF RED CROSS

GUN CLUB, RIK L. RIK, UNIT 3, STINGERS- Cathay de Grande; August 25:
We didn't go inside because we didn't have any money but we hung around outside for awhile. We couldn't hear too much from there though.-JOE

FEAR, TSOL, CHINA WHITE, CHEIFS, CROWD OVERKILL- Bards Appollo; August 22:

Fear played a couple songs for a sound check. Kids started slamming & spitting to their sound check. Overkill came on and played pretty good. They did their familiarizing songs to a gathering crowd. The Crowd played next and did another lively pop set. Even although there was little dancing, the crowd seemed to dig The Crowd. The Cheifs took to the stage and the new singer was great. The HUGE hall was nearly packed by now, and it was so hot in there! I missed China White because I went downstairs with a girl. All I know is their singer thinks he's John Denny of the Weirdos these days. The all new TSOL with Frank Agnew doing leads were GREAT! Still there were punks in attendance who thought it was cool to hate the band. FEAR was FUCKIN' GREAT, what more can I say except they had their set cut because it was too late and all the people who saw them in Decline didn't get to hear "I Love Livin' In THE SHITTY."

-ALAN

BLACK FLAG, WASTED YOUTH, CIRCLE ONE-
Cuckoo's Nest; August 21:

This was a strange show. It took place at 3:00 in the afternoon. They billed it as a "matinee". Circle One, the band everyone's talking about, came on first and probably did the best. Wasted Youth played fast and loud and everybody had a good time. They improve with each gig. (Their album sounds great!) Black Flag's summer '81 anthem "Six Pack" was the band's best song of the day. But when we all left at the end, it was hot and sunny outside! WEIRD.

-DAVE

RED CROSS, MINUTEMEN, SACCHARINE TRUST, DESCENDENTS, SYGON- Cuckoo's Sept. 15: Everyone must be back in school alright, because the head count tonite was under 60. Sygon were real up & coming. The Descendents were real funny. The Minutemen were real tight. Saccharine Trust were real entertaining. Red Cross ran into a few problems. The P.A. wasn't on. Steve & Jeff were obviously in a quarrel. Their set was cut due to lack of time.

-JOE

MEAT PUPPETS, VOX POP: Cathay DeGrand
Sept. 9:

Meat Puppets played very good. Sounded like the Minutemen, but lacked vocal diversity. The band appeared to be very excited about their music as they jumped and danced all over the small stage. The bass player played with his back to the audience, but only faced us to sing a few songs. Vox Pop were very funny. Paul was drunker than hell. Mary looked radiant. They let everyone else sing a song (including Circle Jerks' Keith doing an impromptu version of Wild In The Streets). They had erratic lights and next backup slides. Elvis Presley joined them and did "Heartbreak Hotel". Vox ended the nite by their big hit - off chunks, "Your my favorite", and an all inspired version of "American Woman".

-Alan & Dave

BLACK FLAG, FEAR, STAINS, YOUTH GONE
MAD, CAUSTIC CAUSE. CSUN Northridge
September 11:

I was warned about this place. But I got in for free (wow), so I went. Missed Caustic and YGN. The Stains I don't like that much. I watched a few songs, I do like "Sick & Crazy" though, they were sloppy fast heavy metal and they knew it. Fear's set was plagued by a person unplugging the power. Black Flag did a lot of slow physadelic stuff mixed with their regual stuff. One more thing, the atmosphere here sucked. there. — JON

DEAD KENNEDYS, TSOL, 45 GRAVE. Florintine Gardens Sept. 5:

I, like quite a few people, snuck in, since the guy with the guest list was really dumb. I got in towards the end of 45 Grave's set. I LOVED THEM as usual. Paul Cutler is the coolest! "Black Cross" had alot of em dancing, but most were too busy yelling "FUCK YOU!" Mary had all blonde hair tonite, it looked like she enjoyed the crowd. They ended their set with a 10 minute wall of sound with guitar, synthezizer, and Don banging on his kit. TSOL came out with Jack wearing a red turbon. They ripped into "Superficial Love" and Jack took off the turbon and revealed a sporty new crew cut. Their whole entire set was fantastic. Their album is the best! "Code Blue" as an encore was a wise descion, also standing out in the set were "Silent Scream" and "Funeral March". Between TSOL and Dead Kennedys, the place got "trashed" as Two On The Town would put it. The bathrooms were flooded, someone broke an overhead pipe in the lobby, someone ripped off a fire extinguisher and sprayed it into the crown of over 22,00. It was so humid the the huge hall, and there were LOTSA FIGHTS! Outside cops were busting heads, I was told. People were T.P.ing the hall, it was funny. Dead Kennedys came on and played sloppy. I was looking forward to seeing one of my favorite acts, but so were thousands of others. I still had a good time with them. DK's come down here twice a year, lets hope they pick a wiser spot to play next time. Florintine Gardens is WORSE than the S.M. Civic! Oh yeah, they did "Man With The Dogs", one of my old favorites. Too many dips got on stage, and Jello was frustrated. He said to one guy, "go back to your pick-up, Prick!" Anyhow, the whole thing was a treat for me.

-DAVE

EDITORIALS & COMMENTS

ALL ABOUT "THE SCENE" MORE POLITICS - EDITORIALS

At one point in my life, I was under the impression that "punk" suppose to mean something radical, entirely different from anything else. I thought it was a way to escape from fitting in. However, in many places fashion is what leads the scene- similar to our rivals, hippys, urban cowboys, and new romantic people. If you don't have a skin-heads hassle you- if you have a skinhead others bother you. Why can't some people be themselves? It's just not cool to put down or hassle others who don't fit up to your standards in fashion. BUT... there is something far more important than fashion, and that is ATTITUDES!! Yes, it is true, people with long hair can share the "punk attitude". The scene is reserved for no one. EVERYONE is eligible. Everyone counts. -DAVE Police chief Daryl Gates scans on the guest list at Bards Apollo for last night, Sept. 19, over 20 riot geared officers of the law marched right on in during a would-be Ch3, Deprogrammer, Wasted Youth, 45 Grave, Middle Class, Subhumans show.

The show was mellow enough, so many people paid and GREAT bands were scheduled. The police officers made their way to the stage like retarded boy scouts. Next thing the crowd of over 800 discovered our brotherly pigs were stopping the show, during the warm up acts set. We all were stunned. There was no reason for this. Some of us refused to leave and trashed the bar area of the club. About 50 protested by stomping up & down, singing "My Country Tis Of Thee" & "America, America" to the cops. The cops now started shooting friendly amounts of tear gas at the kids who just got 36. ripped off from them. (The assholes made off with the cash box.) There was no way they'd give you your money back, so alot of us were upset.

They got everyone outside the club and into this beautiful neighborhood, infamous for muggings, rapes, etc. There was a maggot helicopter circling with a taped message of a siren. Do they think we are as dumb as dogs? Well, over 500 kids outside got even by throwing bottles at the police men and smashing 11 store front windows. Everyone ran, the pigs grabbed anyone they could. It was something out of Quadrophenia. Everyone went to Okidog, the pigs showed up, people went to Errol Flynn, where they were later arrested. (Over 150, made up of punks, hippys, and vatos.)

VARIOUS "THE FUTURE LOOKS BRIGHT"

Shattered Faith are okay. TSOL's cuts are dull (except Abolish Govt.) Social Distortion's "Playpen" is one of my favorites, the other SD cut is good too. CH3 get lost in mediocrity - they sound real up and coming though. MINUTEMEN have fantastic cuts including "Punch Line" and "Straight Jacket". Descendents - most famous for their "I like Food/Der Wienerschnitzel" ditty also do "My Dad Sucks", another classic. SACCHARINE TRUST's "We don't Need Freedom" is my favorite song of the week. Black Flag's "Six Pack" EP is included in its entirety in an obvious attempt at boosting sales. The tape ends with the Stains "Preppy Girls", which sums up this OK/almost perfect cassette pet. -DAVE

**

GERMS "WHAT WE DO IS SECRET"

Let's put it this way, it's only a 45 rpm, the two live songs sound worse than "Germs Live" 45. "Circle One" and "No God" are rare but are the same as the versions on the old Slash EP. "Lesicon Devil" and "Other Newest One" are old news. Sorry kids, this is another ripoff, the Kim Fowley live album being the other one. How many other Germs albums are there gonna be?

TSOL "DANCE WITH ME"

This is a great album even though the cover reminds me of Blue Oyster Cult. TSOL has changed a bit from their EP and they're still hot. My favorite songs are Code Blue, Die For Me, and Silent Scream. Don't forget, I'm Jonathon Harker. -JON

CIRCLE ONE "CIRCLE ONE"

This 7 song tape, most definitely a limited edition / collectors item, includes "Left Right Left", a favorite amongst local impresarios. I love "One Chord". Circle One has fast hardcore 17 second and slow 2 minute songs. Whatta nice mix. -DAVE can possibly get, in addition to the punk and new wave "fad" bands that will probably be unheard of a year from now. You have to admit that Pleasant Gehman's "L.A. Dee Da" section should be really called "Punk Dee Da," since her column does not take in the L.A. musical spectrum but concentrates instead on the "fad" punk scene.

THE SPECIALS "GHOSTOWN"

Another letter to the L.A. Weekly from some poor, lost, inept asshole.

Clipping from a school paper from article ON MORE "PUNK" violence!

"I feel it's fair to say after my careful observation and analysis of our local club scene, that on the whole it is a rather monotonous, insane imbecility," said Uni senior Manuel Samaniego. "Indeed, I feel this rather absurd phenomenon has no place in our cities cultural development."

Black Flag don't say anything onstage because they're afraid they'll get their asses kicked by their own followers (who, incidentally, are so cool they don't have to applaud). But I doubt it.

Baw magazine's classic "BLACK FLAG VIOLENCE" article.

A LETTER to our favorite L.A. TIMES explaining Punk rock

Ahern hit the nail on the hammer. Punk will start World War III. The Beatles were responsible for the Vietnam War, Elvis initiated the Cold War, and the Lennon Sisters singlehandedly started the Korean War. And we must not forgive Glenn Miller for bringing us World War II.

J.M. TURNER

Big shit magazine "PEOPLE" found space for a cheap review of "DECLINE". Notice the 1st sentence.

People

THE DECLINE OF WESTERN CIVILIZATION

If you believe Penelope Spheeris' engrossing, often hilarious and always outrageous documentary, rock n' roll has evolved into a new phenomenon known as "speedrock," in which rhythms of 300 beats per minute aren't unusual. Spheeris, hung around L.A.'s sleaziest rock clubs, interviewing club owners and often zonked-out fans. She also talks to post-punk band members and uncovers a nihilistic attitude toward just about everything. The result is both insanely funny and very frightening. The bands' names are indicative. Circle Jerks, Fear, Germs, Catholic Discipline and Black Flag are examples. Their songs are clearly intended to incite; the fighting in the audience and brawls onstage are all but part of the act. Depression, Revenge, Barbie Doll Lust and I Don't Care About You are typical titles, often sung so fast Spheeris has provided subtitles in English. Is this just good clean fun, rock 'n' roll style? Maybe, at times, though, it looks a bit like the Hitler Youth Movement with guitars. (R) but don't worry, it's good anyway. Why? is an inspiring cut but the best song on the 3 song EP is Friday Night/ Saturday Morning which is sort of a combination of the styles from the two previous themes. I don't care if you buy it or not. -JORDAN
